Camp News- "GO"

By the time you read this Colorado Christian Youth Camp on the Grand Mesa will have been completed for this year. Thank you to all who helped in any way with making this another great success. Many of you helped with preparation and scholarships. Many others gave of their time to be counselors, arts & crafts helpers, kitchen staff, cabin counselors, Bible teachers, bell ringers, etc. Thank you to all. A special thank you to Brian Peacock for putting things together and directing camp this year in spite of his leg injury.

The theme of camp this year was "GO". It was based on the great commission Jesus gave his disciples in Matthew 28:18-20- "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." No doubt many different things were taught and learned but the basic idea of camp was the importance of going and sharing the "good news" of Jesus throughout the world. We can all be a part of this mission in different ways.

In just a few days many of our number will be putting in to practice the theme of camp and "going" a mission trip to Honduras. May God go with them as they go. About the same time Holly and I will be "going" to Guam to help the church out there while their minister and his family goes back to their homeland in the Philippines for a well deserved vacation. Though only a few of our total number are actually "going" anywhere overseas, in a sense we are all going as we who are going could not go without the support and help of those who are staying.

Those of us who are "going" are indebted to those who made it possible. We ask for your prayers and continued support. "Going" is sometimes more glamorous than staying. However, "going" has it's own challenges- Long travel, new living situations, new working conditions and obstacles, homesickness, new food, new sleeping situations, opposition, discouragement, etc. Pray that God is with all who "go" as well as those who stay. Actually He promised He would be- "And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

"Going" for Jesus, John Cooper

Memory Verse For June—1 John 3:1

"How great is the love the Father has lavished on us."

Our Gathering Today

Sermon: Today we pick up with our Memorials and Markers series as we study from God's word the Marker of Baptism. The Rainbow reminded us to Look up! The 12 Stones of the Jordan reminded us to Look forward. And this morning, we will see how Baptism reminds us to Look Inward and Crossward!

Guests: Thank you for being here! It can be an awkward and scary experience to come to a church where you see few if any familiar faces and are unsure where you should sit or if there is some kind of protocol to be followed. Please relax and feel like you are coming into a living room, a warm gathering, an inviting place where there are no expectations except to be loved, served and accepted in the name of Jesus. I know our church family will greet you and make you feel welcome. We hope you find our simple assembly to be a blessing and encouragement to help you closely follow Jesus this week. We invite you, as fellow disciples of Jesus, to share communion when it is passed.

Thank you! To all the servants who worked so hard all week up at Church camp. They sacrificed sleep, relinquished personal comfort zones, and otherwise turned their attention outward to blessing, encouraging and loving so many kids. We trust God's timing with the increase in young hearts according to His grace and mercy.

Wednesday Video series: The series is video and discussion based on Kyle Idleman's series entitled "gods at war". We watch a 15-20 minute video each week and then open God's word and discuss the challenges of fixing our hearts on God alone. Join us at 7pm in the auditorium this Wednesday.

"Love One Another!"

Ask our Father to protect the lives of the men and women of our armed forces. When they must go into battle, to shield them about with a hedge of protection and to show them His salvation.

Pray for Margie Lewis, Melva's mother, to recover from a broken hip, the result of a fall. Pray for safety for Melva as she arranges to best care for her..

Pray for safety for those who are traveling now and in the next few weeks...Lynn and Lila. Briggs, Shiloh Briggs family, and others that will soon be traveling.

Pray for those who are expecting babies and for safe delivery and healthy moms and babies.

Pray for those still battling cancer, LuAnn Moore, Kellie Whiting, and Janice Ferris. Pray for the treatments to work and for healing, comfort and peace for them and their families.

Pray for the safety and protection of all missionary families and for their work in the Lord's kingdom.

Pray for our elders and leaders in our church family here, for God to give them wisdom and guidance as they go about securing a Youth Minister.

Pray that God will remember and bless all the sick and injured that we may not know about or who we may have forgotten.

Pray for the success of the upcoming VBS. Pray that we may reach many little children and they will remember what they have been taught as they have a wonderful learning experience.

Pray for the little children that have entered this country without parents and without means in which to live. They are suffering on our borders and the living conditions are deplorable. There are so many of them that they are overwhelming our Border Patrol in Texas and Arizona. Pray that God will intervene in this terrible humanitarian crisis.

Remember to give God the praise, honor and thanksgiving for His loving care and for His answers to our prayers.
