Youth Group Prayer Walk

This Wednesday our youth group spent an hour praying to God after church. Heidi Heath and other college students helped with different stations upstairs as we spent time praying scripture, listening to Christian music and other prayer stations.

Some of our students shared what they experienced and felt throughout the prayer walk. The words below are how students articulated their evening.

I liked the cast your burdens because I have a lot of stress in my life and I needed to give it to Jesus. These range from lust, to guilt, to all the pressure from everyone around me. I need to turn my problems over to Jesus and this reminded of that.

My favorite part of the prayer walk was the writing on the cross because we really just got to express our felling just to God and no one else.

I realized the things that I needed to change about myself so I can become a better person and Christian.

My favorite prayer station was where we got our feet washed, though I don't really like my feet to be touched, it's more about people being there for each other and serving the Lord and sharing their faith. It is not just about us, but all followers of the Lord. I was able to think deeply about my faith. I think about my spirituality a lot, but it only affects me when I get to sit and meditate about it. The prayer walk allowed me to do that. The people at the prayer walk stations told me things and did things for me that reassured me and helped me to know they loved me. (Heidi, Joel, Kelsay, Beth, Corey, Allie, and Sheri) I sat at the music station for a very long period of time praying, listening, and meditating. It made me realize that I need to schedule time to do that every day. I hope it'll stick with me for longer.

God Bless,

Memory Verse For August—James 4:8

“Come near to God and He will come near to you.”

Our Gathering Today

Feeding on the Word!

Peter says something very calming and reassuring to me as a preacher: "I will always remind you of these things, even though you know them and are firmly established in the truth you now have" (2 Peter 1:12). This morning we ask the question: What do I need to be reminded of? We will let Scripture, the word of God help answer that and may we be challenged, blessed and reminded! See you in 2 Peter in a few minutes!

Welcome Guests! (Guest WiFi is available)

Thank you for being here this morning! Please fill out the guest card attached to the gift bread and place it in the collection plate when it is passed. Our assembly time is fairly simple with prayers, songs, weekly communion and opening God's word together. It is our hope that you will be blessed and encouraged by being here and that you will choose to come again and get to know us better. If you trust the redemptive sacrifice of Jesus Christ and claim him as Lord we invite you to share the Bread and Cup of Blessing with us as it is passed.

If you would like to know more about us go to grandjunctionchurch.org and click on the "About" tab and then "What we believe." We will be happy and honored to answer any questions you may have. Please let us know how we might serve you.

Acts of Service...The Face of Jesus

A special Thanks to all those who serve in the areas of Nursery duty and Children's church. This is a special need that is met by your willingness to bless children with an age appropriate lesson from God's word and young parents with a brief break so they might focus more on the worship assembly. THANK YOU!! We are always needing more help in these areas so if you are reading this and find a dual meaning in Paul's words to the Corinthians, "They will not all sleep but they will all be changed" :-)) then you probably have the right temperament and joyful spirit of service to help with little ones! Sign up today!
